“ Tia, words cannot express how I feel at this time... All the days I spent with you, your love, care, hugs, songs, and dancing, can never be replaced. I am so grateful for all you did for me and our family. because of you, I have such strong work ethics and love for others. you always forgave others and looked at their heart above everything else.

As I am writing this, a flood of memories are coming back: sleeping with you and papa in the bed (LOL), going to church with you, weddings, quinceneras, parties and making sure I danced at least one song with you. Helping you clean the yard and woking with you at the packing house; seeing you smile and laugh with all the ladies there was a blessing. Waiting patiently as you cooked: tamales, atole, bueneulos, fresh tortillas, enchiladas, tacos, arroz con leche and copetatade (I know I spelled it wrong but if you know, you know, lol). Memories I will never forget Is you being there for my HS Graduation, and especially my College Graduation as well as my wedding. those moments can ever be replaced or forgotten, thank-you.

After papa passed away, you were ready to go also. you couldn't live without your one true love. GOD wasn't ready for you to join him yet, you still have grandchildren, great grandchildren and even great great grandchildren to meet. you had events that needed you there as well because it wouldn't have been the same without you. as much as you were ready, we were not ready to let you go. and I thank GOD for the many years he gave to us because it was a gift to us all.

Tia, you are finally with Papa where the two of you can dance, all night. finally smiling again because you are free from pain and the heartache you endured for so long. its selfish of me to ask for more time with you but I know someone needed you more. Papa said, "Vieja, es tiempo de venire a casa, mi amor." Gracias para todo, Tia.

give my dad a hug when you get there. I know he missed you too. I LOVE YOU!!!
