“ I am sadden to learn of the passing of a good man. A neighbor who would occasionally stop by and we would talk for an hour or more. The first time I met Temo he was a little boy. He came to buy some rabbits from me. I don't remember telling him but he said I once told him, if you can dream it your can do it. He said he always kept that in mind. Well this man knew he could do anything he set his mind to. I have admired him for all he managed to accomplish. Goodbye my friend, Rest Well with the Lord.

On that day he shed this fragile body and in that instant he stands in Eden, among the Angles and Saints, in perfection, singing praises and giving glory to Our Lord God.

Rest Well my Friend...

“ I will never forget the time I bonded and created memories with Antelmo. It wasn't under the best circumstances since it was when we flew in to Kingsburg for his mother's (my aunt) passing. Without hesitation him and his family made the long drive to LAX to pick us up and welcome us into their home, where we felt super comfortable and had the best hospitality you could ever imagine. It was as if we knew each other for ever. Even though we were family, we didn't have the blessing to grow up together nor get to know each other. Regardless of how much sadness he felt, he still managed to be the humorous him imitating everyone. We had the greatest laughs and that's how I will always remember him.
