

Bonnie Jean Miller

April 21, 1936 - April 6, 2024

Obituary for Bonnie J. Miller

Bonnie J. Miller went to be with her Savior on April 6, 2024. Bonnie shined like the sun at the break of dawn, as He raised her up on angels' wings and welcomed her to her eternal home. Bonnie passed away peacefully with her family by her side at her home.

Bonnie was born in Kingsburg, California on April 21, 1936. Bonnie was preceded in death by her parents, Calloway Baker and Mattie Baker, her brother J.C. Baker, her husband Lucky Miller, and her son, Richard D. Miller. Bonnie is survived by her daughter Lynda S. Smith of Selma, California, and son, Robert K. Miller of Kingsburg, California. She is also survived by 2 grandchildren, Rodger Wood-Miller of Kingsburg, California, and Dustin E. Miller of Hutchinson, Kansas.

Bonnie was a devoted mother and grandmother. Bonnie loved & appreciated being able to live in Kingsburg, California and being a part of all the wonderful advantages of small-town life. Bonnie married her love, Lucky Miller, on June 12, 1952. Bonnie loved being able to spend time camping with the family at Hume Lake campground where all the Miller's gathered yearly to come together and spend time catching up with one another, sitting around large campfires laughing and creating memories. Bonnie worked with the United States Department of Agriculture before retiring from there. Previous to that, she managed and operated the farm for many years and the family business, Lucky's Union Oil Service Station in Kingsburg, California.

Bonnie's passion was gardening and making sure her family was taken care of. She always took care of her family beyond measure.

Bonnie, your family loves you, you will be missed tremendously. Your love and memories will live with us always and forever.

I had the great pleasure of meeting Lynda and Rob's parents in their lovely home many years ago. They showed me around their gorgeous garden and home. They were so welcoming and kind. They are people you always remember with fond memories. The planet earth was blessed to have had them visit for a time. We will see you again.

Just like cousin Dave, I have fond memories of visiting the Miller farm as a kid every summer. Swimming and playing with my cousins. I remember when Ricky and I must have thrown a hundred grapes in the pool. Bonnie was so sweet, instead of getting upset she turned it into a game for us to get the grapes off the bottom of the pool. Love you aunt Bonnie. Dean Baker.
