“ He was one of the best men I ever had the privilege of knowing. You never left a conversation with him with anything less than a smile. His devotion to family, love for his fellow man and desire to help others are qualities we should all strive toward.

Lord take him in your arms, and bring peace and comfort to his wife, children, grandchildren and great grandchild.

It's so much darker when a light goes out than it would have been if it had never shone - John Steinbeck
