

Daniel Garcia

March 3, 1927 - August 21, 2020

Daniel Garcia beloved husband, father, grandfather, and brother has passed away peacefully on August 21, 2020 at the age of 93.

Daniel was born to Julio & Lupe Garcia in Los Angeles, CA on March 3, 1927.

He is survived by his son Daniel Garcia and wife Myra of Kingsburg, three grandchildren, Keith Christopher, Jason Daniel and Brooke Melissa.

Dan was married on July 25, 1966 to Dora Verdugo. Dan had 54 years of marriage to his best friend Dora. They enjoyed family, traveling together, seeing the sites and making new friends.

He was always happy to be around his grandkids. It brought such a big smile to his face. He loved sharing stories and passing on some knowledge.

Dan served in the U.S. Air Force as a Med Tech during WW II. After serving his country he went on to work for General Motors from where he eventually retired. Soon after retirement he moved to Kingsburg to raise his family.

His hobbies included reading and woodworking. He could be found in his shop with the wood stove going, the radio on and working on another project.

Dan will forever be remembered as a loving husband, father and grandfather. Dan is preceded by his wife Dora Garcia, daughter Henrietta Garcia, parents Julio & Lupe Garcia

Graveside services will be held 10:00 AM Friday, September 4th, 2020 at Kingsburg Cemetery, 12782 E. Clarkson Avenue, Kingsburg.
