

Doris Marie Freeman

November 17, 1934 - November 29, 2021

Doris Marie Freeman, 87, went to be with Jesus on November 29, 2021. Doris was born to Clifford and Willie Elms on November 17, 1934, in Shawnee, OK. She was the 4th of six children. Her family moved to California, eventually settling in Orosi, CA. She attended Orosi High School where she was an avid tennis player. After high school she worked as a telephone operator.

Doris married Hershell Wayne Freeman on September 7, 1954. They had two children, Michael Wayne Freeman and Lori Anne Saubert.

The majority of Doris' life she worked at Western Auto as a bookkeeper and Guarantee Savings as a teller. She retired from banking and continued working as a volunteer at KCAPS and Kingsburg Community Church.

Doris loved her grandsons and great grandsons. She also enjoyed reading, camping, fishing with dad, going to soccer tournaments with her grandsons, family reunions and in her later years, Giants baseball.

Doris came to a relationship with Jesus later in life and was firm in her faith.

Doris is survived by her daughter, Lori Saubert and son-in-law John Saubert, daughter-in-law Nadine Freeman, grandsons Joshua Freeman (Taylor), Jordan Freeman (Kasey), great grandsons Dawson Freeman and Luke Freeman, brother Leo Elms (Ruth), sister Carol Fountain (Jim), brother-in-law Valgean Hall, sister-in-law Lula Elms and many other, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Doris is preceded in death by her husband Hershell Freeman, son Michael Freeman, brother Ward Elms, sister Louise Hall, brother Roy Elms and dad and mom Clifford & Willie Elms.

“ The best sister a girl could have. She was always there for me. She was caring, smart, funny. We liked the same things - same tv programs, loved to read the same books. Will miss her phone calls. Loved her so much. My heart hurts for her family. Love you all.
