“ Among my many memories, the main thing I remember about Helen was her sense of humor. In person or on the phone we would find much to share and laugh about. She was a true believer and her faith was genuine. I loved her. Paul and I are sending our love and prayers to Mike, Alex, & Kim.

Grandma, I don't think the reality of your departure has hit me yet. I love you so much, and always have, even when we disagreed, and definitely when we were put through painful trials and only had one another for support. I will miss watching Anne of Green Gables with you, your hilarious stories, your razor sharp wit, our weekend trips to Morro Bay...I love you. I praise the Lord for working through you to plant good seeds in my mind and heart. We will see you again soon.
