“ We were so sorry to hear about Jim. He has been our friend since 1984 when we bought our first computer and adopted Jim as our expert. We looked forward to each new year when he came calling to close out our books and set up the new year. We will miss him. I am sure he is happy to be reunited with his family, but our new years won't be as fun without him in them.

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Jim's family.
