Jennifer Leeann Peters

May 26, 1984 - February 19, 2024

Jennifer was born in Fresno, CA to Rick and Kathy Stransky on May 26, 1984. She and her younger sister, Janelle Aguilar, grew up in Kingsburg, CA. She attended Kingsburg schools and went on to high school in Fowler, CA. During her time at Kingsburg and Fowler High School, she was involved in band. Her passion was education, she received her bachelor's degree in Liberal Arts at Fresno Pacific University all while raising her young son, Cayden (17).

Jennifer was introduced to a handsome young man, Eddie Peters and they were married on June 11, 2011. They then welcomed 3 beautiful daughters, Ella (11), Phebe (9), and Odette (7) to complete their family of 6. The Peters family enjoyed taking trips together to the beach as well as taking care of chickens and their beloved dogs.

Jennifer loved attending High Fitness, church, and all of her children's school events and outside activities. Her passion was her family. Most recently, she was able to fulfill her dreams and became an educator at Gettysburg Elementary in Clovis, CA. Along with being a mom and an educator, she ran her husband, Eddie's construction business for many years. Jennifer made an impression on everyone she met. She leaves behind a crater in all of our hearts and we will cherish the memories and her amazing smile forever. She will be deeply missed by her family, friends, and coworkers.

“ I am sorry to know that Jennifer has past. Kathy, I remember all that you did serving Lincoln Elementary. Your dedication serving on staff, your smile, kindness and support to the school I have not forgotten. You loved to share about your beautiful daughters Jenelle and Jennifer. I'm so happy to read that Jennifer also served others by becoming a teacher in Clovis California. May the Father hold your family up. Janet Adams
