

Joan M. Killian

January 2, 1942 - April 7, 2022

Joan Killian was born January 2, 1942 to Ebb Jameson and Ruth Jameson (Gilliam), She was one of ten children. She married the love of her life, Harold ♦Pat' Killian, on Dec. 22, 1959 and were married for more than 56 years at the time of his death in 2015. Also preceding her in death are her daughter-in-law, Aleida Killian, her parents and several of her siblings.

She is survived by her daughter Christine Killian, of Kingsburg, and sons Leonard Killian, William Killian and Patrick Killian, all of Selma, granddaughter Leann Stevens of Klamath Falls, OR., grandsons Steven Killian of Klamath Falls, OR. and Brandon Killian, of TN. She has a great granddaughter and 3 great-grandsons.

Besides a homemaker and mother, Joan occasionally worked on the ranch along her husband driving tractors, and worked as a cafeteria cook at the Traver Elementary School for nearly 10 years.

Joan was an avid crafter; her crocheted works are treasured by many. In addition to crocheting, Joan loved to quilt. She will be missed by both family and friends.
