

Joanie Bazzano

March 4, 1953 - February 19, 2020

Joan Carpenter Bazzano was born on March 4, 1953, in Paragould Arkansas, to Alvie Carpenter and Ruth Emmerson Hyde Carpenter. In 1955 the family moved to California settling in Kingsburg. Joan grew up in Kingsburg graduating from Kingsburg High School in 1971. She spent most of her years in Kingsburg settling in Selma in 1997. Joan didn't know a stranger and was a lover of all animals rescuing many cats and dogs. She loved to garden having over 30 rose bushes in her yard. She worked in the restaurant business for 50 years voted Best Server in Town multiple times. She passed away, surrounded by family on February 19, 2020.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her brother Earl Carpenter. She is survived by her children Meredith Denton (Daryl Denton), Amanda Bazzano, and Marcus Bazzano, her grandchildren Amber Denton and Chandler Denton, her sisters Betty Wells (Linwood Wells), Cathy Arquette (Howard Arquette), Dottie Palomar, Linda Leal (Al Leal), and her brother Glenn Carpenter. She also leaves behind many nieces and nephews that she loved dearly.

A memorial service will be held on Thursday, July 9th, 2020 at the Kingsburg Community Church, 1590 Smith Street, at 10am.

Flowers may be sent to the Church.

“ *Mandy & Sibling,
I met your mother when she was a waitress here in Kingsburg. not sure what the name of the restaurant, was at that the time, it has changed so many times. Then in Selma at McCoy's.
She was a lovely sweet lady, always had a smile. I always thought it was a blessing that her and Mandy(mother and daughter) worked together. My thoughts and prayers are with you all, she will never be forgotten.
Sorry I didn't make it to her service. Your Mother was sweet & kind to myself and my late husband & late My Father in law. I'm sure it wasn't always easy at times, as my father in law teased a lot. but she was always so gracious & a smile for us. Mandy you had a great example and you followed in her footsteps as well. I first met her in 2001 I think.
God Bless you and keep you. Prayers will continue for the family.*

Love ya Mandy, A friend, Kathy DiGiorno
