

Judith Carol Thomas

June 13, 1951 - December 19, 2025

Judith Thomas, 74, passed away on December 19, 2025, in Kingsburg, California. Born on June 13, in Caraway, Arkansas, she lived a life marked by dedication to her family, hard work, and a joyful spirit that touched everyone around her.

Judy was the eleventh of twelve children and grew up working alongside her family on their farm in Arkansas. This early experience instilled in her a strong work ethic and deep appreciation for family values that remained central throughout her life.

After moving to California, Judy began her professional journey at NCR while living in Bell Gardens. Later, she relocated to the Central Valley where she continued to contribute to her community through various roles. She worked at the Selma Enterprise newspaper, the Del Monte Cannery, and the Sun-Maid Raisin Plant. In each position, Judy brought energy and commitment that reflected her vibrant personality.

Judy shared over 55 years of marriage with her beloved husband Carl Thomas. Together they built a loving home filled with laughter and warmth. Daughter Carlene Falconer and son-in-law Bill Falconer; grandsons Billy, Trevor, Jordan, and Dylan; and nine great-grandsons. Her son Donny and daughter-in-law Talea with granddaughters Elizabeth and Samantha.

Family was at the heart of everything Judy did. She found immense joy in spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Whether playing cards or bingo, bowling a few frames, or simply enjoying a cup of coffee surrounded by loved ones, Judy embraced every moment with enthusiasm.

Known as the life of the party, Judy had an infectious smile and an unwavering desire to bring happiness to others. She always put others before herself and had a remarkable ability to make people feel seen and cherished.

May Judith Thomas' memory bring comfort to all who knew and loved her.
