

Kimberly Kay Sassman

September 28, 1960 - March 29, 2026

Kimberly Kay Sassman, age 65, passed away surrounded by love, leaving behind a legacy of strength, kindness, and unwavering devotion to her family.

Kimberly was born in Humboldt, Iowa, and moved to Kingsburg, California in 1977, where she built a life centered around family, community, and hard work. She dedicated 20 years of her career to Bank of America before later working alongside her husband at Kingsburg Auto Care.

Kimberly was a beloved wife, mother, sister, and aunt whose presence brought warmth and comfort to everyone who knew her. She shared a beautiful life with her husband, Mark Sassman, whose partnership and love were a constant source of strength. She was a proud and devoted mother to her daughter, Tara Sassman, whom she loved deeply and supported unconditionally.

Kimberly is also survived by her brother, Kevin Otto, and was a cherished aunt to her niece, Julia Otto, and nephew, Dylan Otto. She held her family close to her heart and created lasting memories filled with love, laughter, and togetherness.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Judy Otto, and her father, Roland Otto.

Known for her caring spirit and genuine kindness, Kimberly had a way of making people feel seen, valued, and loved. Her compassion and strength touched many lives, and her memory will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

A celebration of life will be held at Kingsburg Historical Park on April 13 at 11:00 AM.

She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

Services have been entrusted to Salser & Dillard Creighton Chapel. Memorial Tributes and condolences may be offered by logging onto www.salseranddillard.com.
