

Luis Alonzo Herrera Jr.

June 2, 1995 - September 12, 2024

Luis Alonzo Herrera Jr., 29 of Hanford, California, died on Thursday, September 12, 2024, in Hanford, California. Luis was born to Luis Alonzo Herrera and Miquelina Aurora Silva on June 2, 1995 in Selma, California.

To honor and remember the life of Luis Alonzo Herrera Jr., affectionately known to us as Beans or Frijoles, a name that always brought a smile to our faces and warmth to our hearts. Born on June 2, 1995, and having departed from this world on September 12, 2024, Luis's journey, though shorter than we had hoped, was one filled with love, laughter, and an indomitable spirit that touched all who knew him.

As Luis's mother, standing here is both the hardest and the proudest moment of my life. Proud because of the incredible person Luis was-kind, funny, and the life of any party. Hard because no words can truly encapsulate what he meant to all of us. Luis was not just my son; he was a cherished friend, a beacon of joy, and a pillar of strength in our family.

Luis had a passion for life that was evident in everything he did. His love for sports, especially for the SF Giants and the KC Chiefs, was more than just a pastime; it was a reflection of his commitment and loyalty. Whether watching a game with his godfather and brother, Steven, or coaching baseball and soccer when he could, Luis's enthusiasm was infectious.

His career as a DJ at Sequoia Bar in Hanford was another arena where Luis shone brightly. Through music, he brought people together, creating moments of joy and celebration that many will remember fondly. His taste in music, much like his personality, was eclectic and often the heartbeat of any gathering.

Luis's journey was also one of resilience. He faced the challenge of obesity with strength and determination, never letting it dim his vibrant spirit. His love for cooking and sharing meals was a testament to his belief in the power of food to bring people together, creating memories that we will cherish forever.

But perhaps what defined Luis the most was his unwavering commitment to his family and friends. His acts of kindness, whether through road trips, movie nights, or simply grilling in his man cave, were the threads that wove our lives closer together. Luis had a unique way of making each of us feel valued and loved, a gift that we will sorely miss.

His favorite quote, "Live life to the fullest; tomorrow is not promised," was a creed by which he lived every day. From Luis, we learned the importance of embracing life with open arms and the reality of how fleeting it can be. His passing, especially following the loss of his father to Covid at such a young age, reminds us of the fragility of life and the strength of the human spirit in the face of adversity.

Luis was loved by so many, and the messages of condolence and memories shared by friends and family are a testament to the impact he had on our lives. His laughter, his kindness, and his ability to light up a room will be remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

As we say goodbye to Luis, let us not dwell on the sadness of his departure but celebrate the joy he brought into our lives. Let us honor his memory by living our lives to the fullest, embracing our loved ones a little tighter, and never forgetting the incredible person that he was.

To my son, Luis, thank you for the love, the laughter, and the lessons. You may have left this world, but your spirit will forever live in our hearts. Rest in peace, my dear Beans.

In closing, I would like to express a special request: as we continue our lives, let us carry Luis's love for sports, his joyous spirit, and his unwavering support for his family and friends with us. Let these be the guideposts by which we remember him and strive to live our lives. Thank you

“ I met beans through my husband and his brother, Steven. He was such an amazing person with an infectious personality. He always made me feel welcomed and included. Last time I seen him was for his and my husband’s birthday, he was a dj at sequoia and as soon as I approached him he said “ What’s up mama how you been? How’s motherhood treating you? “ he genuinely cared and I appreciate him for all he did. I am so glad he got to meet my baby and now he can go and talk about her with Louie. I love you Steven and Mique and know we will always be here for you two.

“ I pray for all of Luis’ family as I remember the many times he made everyone laugh. I wanted to share how he helped me personally feel like a princess when he agreed to be my date to the Winter Formal Dance! He came to my house and talked with my family while I finished getting ready for the dance. As I made my way down the stairs he smiled that big smile he always had. From there we went and danced the rest of the night! We laughed later on about how sore our legs were but it was worth it. I wish I had the pictures from that night but it has been over 10 years since then.

I again got to spend some time with him when I happened to show up at the Sequoia Club while he was the DJ for Halloween night, to which we had another great night of music, dancing, laughs and smiles! I’m glad I spoke with him and hugged him when I had the chance to because he is missed.

To his brothers I pray for your strength and prosperity for a long and happy life. But we will never forget who the life of the party was.

To his parents and family Thank you for bringing Beans into our lives. I pray for your peace and closure.

Sincerely Mattea Green, my Condolences to the whole family.
