“ In the 60's Marie and her husband, Bill, welcomed me and my roommate, Jean, first year teachers from WA state into their home and family. We swam in the pool, rode the horses and shared meals. Marie was so kind and welcoming to two young women far from our families. I remember her stories of growing up in poverty, helping her husband build a trucking business, and beginning a family. I have always been grateful for the love she shared and the generous welcome she extended. When I make pilaf the recipe is hers and the memory is sweet. My deepest sympathies to Marie's family.

“ When I moved to California in 1967, Bill and Marie Bowlin befriended two young school teachers. They generously took us water skiing and horse back riding. We spent many weekends enjoying their hospitality. They will be missed.
