“ Though I never had the chance to truly know my grandmother, she has always held a quiet place in my heart. Even from a distance, I knew of her strength, her kindness, and the love she gave to those around her. I’m sorry that life never let our paths cross in the way I wished they had, but my love and respect for her have always been there. I will always think of her with tenderness and wish I had the chance to share even one moment with her.

“ My aunt Joyce was the last living child of a huge family. Although my relationship with the Ford family was complicated, Joyce never stopped including me in her embrace and in her thoughts. She was pure selfless love to me my entire life. Also her love of Disneyland was passed on to me and I think of her laughter and child like joy every time I’m there.

“ We always enjoyed seeing her on her monthly visits to Ruby's Diner in Carlsbad! Her lovely smile and keen sense of humor was so welcome in what was often a hectic day! Whenever we had time to chat, I always went back to work with a feeling of having spent a few minutes with someone loving and special. Rest well, Beautiful!
