

Martin Joseph Guerra

August 3, 1969 - August 22, 2023

Martin Joseph Guerra, 54 of Kingsburg, California passed away peacefully on August 22, 2023 at his childhood home in Kingsburg, California. Martin was born on August 3rd, 1969 at Los Gatos Hospital to Joe & Hilda Guerra.

He came to Kingsburg when he was 1 year old, where he called his home for 53 years of his life. Martin was an avid outdoorsman who loved to hike, hunt, fish, stargaze, cook, and live off the land whenever possible; nature is where he found the most peace in this world. Martin was a very kindhearted, loving, talented, God-fearing man who could lift your spirits with his big smile, kind eyes, and warm hugs. Throughout his life, he mastered many talents including carpentry, woodwork, metalwork, fabrication, antique restoration, classic car restoration, engine work, and more. He put passion into any project he worked on, and when he did not know how to do something, he loved to research and learn. During his free time, Martin enjoyed movies, music, golf, bible study, and time with family and friends. He was always the life of the party. In the last months of his life Martin knew he was in mental and spiritual everlasting peace. He knew the closer his relationship grew with Christ, the more Christlike he became, which in turn the more positive and fulfilling life became around him.

Martin is survived by his father and mother, Joe & Hilda Guerra of Kingsburg, his brother Mark Guerra of Kingsburg, daughters CheyAnne Record and Marti

Jo Guerra of Kingsburg, and an abundance of beloved nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Martin will be dearly missed by those whose lives he touched.
