Obituary for Patricia Ann Badiou

Patricia Ann Badiou, 78 of Kingsburg, California, passed away on Saturday, September 5, 2020, in Fresno, California. Patricia was born to Connie Lee Campbell and Ella Katherine Williams on October 1, 1941 in Missouri.

Patricia came from a large family where she was one of eight children. As a teenager, Patricia moved from Missouri to California and worked many different jobs, but spent most of her adult life working in the accounting field as a bookkeeper.

In 1960 she married William Vandalia and had two sons, Kevin and Charles. Later divorced from William, Patricia married Charles Badiou on June 26, 1982. He had one daughter, Deann Williams.

Over the years, they traveled all over the US and parts of Canada together settling in their later years, in Lake Havasu, AZ for about 14 years. Although they both loved the lake environment and warm weather, in 2004 they decided to move back to California to Kingsburg to be closer to family and friends.

In her spare time, Pat enjoyed reading, playing cards, going to country music jams with friends and watching movies. She was truly the happiest when she was surrounded by her family and friends. Many of them live in various parts of the country so she would spend hours visiting with them on the phone. Sharing stories, laughter and fun times created great memories and brought joy to her heart. Spending time with her grandkids and being involved with their activities always brought such a big smile to her face.

Pat will be forever remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother and devoted friend to many.

She is preceded by her husband Charles Badiou. Patricia is survived by sons, Kevin (wife-Charity) and Chuck (wife-Tina) Vandalia; daughter, Deann Williams; sister, Marie Jolly; brother, Don Campbell (wife Louise). She also leaves behind 10 grandchildren and 10 great- grandchildren.
