Our deepest condolences to you Cindy, Joe and all your beautiful Family. Paul was a very special young man to us at Holy Family and Life Teen. He will never be forgotten and always remembered how much he loved God. He was so funny and such a Joy to have in Life Teen he just had so much zeal in his spirit and always wanted to know about God. Paul had such a good Heart and pretty much loved all of our Life Teen Group. RIP Paul and May God's Perpetual Light shine upon you! Until we see each other again.

Paul introduced himself as 'Butter' when we first met. I asked him how he got the name Butter. He wasn't forthcoming but eventually I got it out of him. It's actually Brudder (Brother), he explained it was a sibling(s) who couldn't quite pronounce Brother. I guess, Butter stuck and he was known to everybody on College Street as Butter. He spoke of his family very often during our conversations, so the love was there no matter what, I attest to it. Something about Butter was just so genuine. He cared and showed empathy for others. One thing about Butter is, he always wanted to find a way to help fix or find a solution to your problem...didn't matter what the situation was, Butter had at least 3 options to tackle the problem so that it no longer posed a problem. There was a lot of mystery to him, he didn't just open up to anybody, but he always made a point to show those he cared for that they were special to him. Now....if he didn't like you, he had no issue expressing that either. Lol. He was a nice guy. It's too bad his life was cut short due to a tragic and unnecessary event. I pray for Paul that he gets to spend eternity in heaven with God and for his loved ones that an influx of peace fills the void he leaves behind in each and every one of you.

*Respectfully,
Courtney H.*
