“ Papa Rudy- I will forever cherish the countless of times you and Tia Sylvia welcomed me to your home when visiting. Mornings of waking up and meeting in the living room to discuss hot topics or just catch up while having coffee and doughnuts, never a dull moment and you always made us laugh until our side hurt. It pains me to think I will no longer hear you joke with us and encourage us to gather 'round, hold hands. and sing kumbaya together. Thank you for existing and being such a positive light in people's lives, you'll truly be missed. Kumbaya Papa Rudy, may you rest in peace.
