Teodora was a homemaker. She was a lovely woman. She enjoyed cooking, knitting, sewing, gardening, outdoors and traveling. She liked to collect rocks. She enjoyed having a good time. Her smile and laughter were genuine. She liked to give hugs. She enjoyed walking all her life. At age 78 she entered the Dala Horse Trot the 2 mile walk for women 70 and over. She was surprised and happy to place 2nd in her age category.

Our mother had a lots of faith in God. God is first than everything in life follows. She was a devoted Catholic. She would always carry a rosary in her pocket. Our mother was a strong woman. She always kept herself busy. Our mother had a good singing voice. She liked to sing hymns and songs in church and at home. Our mother attended Mass on Sundays and weekdays at Holy Family Catholic Church. She was involved in her church. She was a member of the Guadalupe Society. For many years she volunteered to decorate the Virgin of Guadalupe at church with lots of flowers to acknowledge the feast day of Dec 12. She reminded her grandchildren to say their prayers. Her grandchildren were very important to her. She was always there for them. She encouraged them to do their best in life.

The Lord blessed us with a beautiful, delightful, caring mother, grandmother, aunt, godmother, mother -in -law, sister and friend.

“ I remember Mrs. Carroen when I was living in Kingsburg. I used to see her in church and always with that beautiful smile of hers. And yes, those special hugs of hers. May she rest in eternal peace.
