

Wayne Dennis Larson

November 20, 1947 - October 11, 2022

Wayne Larson of Kingsburg who was a husband, father, grandfather and brother left his earthly home on Tuesday, October 11th, 2022.

Wayne will forever be remembered by his wife and best friend Janet Larson, sons Garrett and Blake Larson, daughter in law Kari and granddaughters Paige and Addison Larson.

Wayne was a long-time mechanic and well known for his family business, "Larson's Auto" which was on the corner of Lincoln and Draper Street in downtown Kingsburg. You were almost guaranteed to see Wayne at one time or another waving or smiling at you as you drove by the station.

His hobbies were hunting, trap shooting or sporting clays with his lifelong buddies.

Wayne will forever be missed by his family and friends.

The family would like to thank the Harvest Home in Fowler for the staff's love and kindness they extended to Wayne while he was in their care.

A celebration of life will be held at the Kingsburg Historical Park on Tuesday, October 18th at 10:00am.

Remembrances can be made to the donor's choice.

“ Sad to hear of Wayne passing. Blessed to have known him during my childhood in Kingsburg and then he became family when he married my dad’s cousin Jan. Prayers and condolences for the family.

“ When growing up on 20th avenue, Wayne just lived in the next block. He would make rice crispie treats and share them with the neighbor kids...a boy, cooking? It sure impressed me! Rest in peace old friend.

“ Wayne was my go-to guy if I was driving through my hometown. I would always stop and talk with Wayne and Denny and share what was going on with them and in my life to. Wayne was a big part of my life growing up in Kingsburg, I remember those late Saturday nights I was at Waynes parents and watching Frankenstein or Dracula movies on TV. God bless Wayne
