“ I pretty much lived every weekend at their house Wayback in the day very good memories little bit of hell raisin a few days before I got the news, I randomly looked him up heard he was in Kingsburg. Got a outline of where he lived was going to visit, but I put it off. I did not know he was in a bad way less than a week later another friend of ours, Mike Bruce text me and told me Bill passed away. I was like oh crap. When God is giving you a nudge, don't put it off.
