“ Wilma was known as “the social butterfly” at WJ. She was a loving, giving, wonderful friend. Carol, Wilma and I had many fun times together throughout our days at WJ and after she retired and lived in Ripon. She was all heart. She will be sorely missed.

*With so many fond memories,

“ Fond memories of dear Wilma will always be held close in my heart. She was a wonderful, fun-loving, generous and caring friend at WJ and I was so fortunate having our friendship last long after our years at WJ. Wilma was always there for me and many others during difficult times. She was loved by so many and is greatly missed.
